WTVMEA and the Northwest Choir Chairs would like to thank First United Methodist Church for their hospitality in allowing us to rehearse and Freed-Hardeman University for allowing us to present our concert here this afternoon.

Greetings,

On behalf of the West Tennessee Music Educators Association, it is my honor and pleasure to welcome the families, friends, and supporters gathered here for the performances of the 2026 All-West Junior and Senior High Honor Choirs. I am also deeply honored to serve as President of the West Tennessee Vocal Music Educators Association for the next two years. The opportunity to support and advocate for music students and educators is one of the greatest privileges of my career.

Through events such as the All-Southwest Honor Choir, Choral Performance Assessment, Solo & Ensemble Festival, and All-State Honor Choir, I have witnessed firsthand the extraordinary talent, dedication, and passion that Tennessee students and educators bring to the art of music. Their commitment to excellence exemplifies the very best our state has to offer, and today's performers are no exception.

It is especially meaningful to see so many families and friends in attendance who recognize the value of a fine arts education and the lasting impact of music in the lives of young people. Music education teaches far more than notes and rhythms. It fosters discipline, time management, perseverance, and the importance of purposeful practice. Most importantly, it teaches students how to work together toward a common goal.

These young musicians encourage one another, celebrate each other's successes, and support one another through challenges. Through their shared experiences, they build friendships and connections that often feel like family. To all the parents, guardians, relatives, and friends who have supported these students on their musical journey, thank you. Your encouragement and investment have helped them grow not only as musicians, but also as students, leaders, and compassionate individuals.

In a world that can often feel divided, music has a remarkable ability to bring people together. One concert, one song, even a single note can create connections that transcend our differences. Today, we gather to experience that unity and to celebrate the joy that music uniquely provides. For a moment, we set aside our daily concerns and immerse ourselves in the artistry, dedication, and heart these students have shared through their music. Their performance is a powerful reminder of our common humanity and the enduring impact of the arts.

Thank you for joining us today. I hope you enjoy this inspiring performance by the 2026 All-West Junior and Senior High Honor Choirs.

Musically,

Rosalyn Lake

Dr. Mark Statler is the Director of Choral Activities and Assistant Professor of Music at the University of Tennessee at Martin where he conducts the University Singers and New Pacer Singers and teaches choral music education courses for undergraduate students and students in the Master of Music in Music Education program. He and his wife, Audrey, have three children: Mattie, Eliana, and Sam.

Mark grew up in the cornfields of Rochester, Indiana before graduating from Taylor University with a music education degree in 2010 and teaching general music at Center Grove Elementary School in Greenwood, Indiana. Mark then moved to Kenya in 2011 to direct the middle school and high school choral program at Rosslyn Academy, an international school in the capital city of Nairobi. In addition to teaching, he had the joy of being a part of the classical music scene by conducting the Nairobi Music Society and the Nairobi Orchestra in choral/symphonic works and singing and conducting the Greenwood Singers chamber choir. In 2018, the Statler family moved back to the U.S. where Mark studied choral conducting at Bowling Green State University, graduating with his master's degree in 2020. Continuing his studies at Ball State University, he graduated as a Doctor of Arts in Music in 2023 with a primary focus in choral conducting and a secondary focus in music education. During this time he worked as an adjunct professor, conducting the Taylor University Women's Chorus and mentoring working music educators in the online master's program at Bowling Green State University. The choral music of Florence B. Price (1887-1953) was the focus of his dissertation lecture recital, and he continues to research, perform, and present these artistic and important under-performed works.

In the past few years, he has had the privilege to conduct honor and festival choirs for elementary, middle school, and high school students in Tennessee, Illinois, Kentucky, and the International Honors High School Music Festival in Budapest, Hungary. He is grateful to the educators who have influenced his musical journey, and he believes music education is exactly what the world needs right now to heal from its wounds and move forward to a more positive future. Thank you to all of the music educators who are making a difference in the lives of these students!

Benjamin has been fortunate to accompany the All-Northwest Junior High Choir for the past 13 years. He is the Special Education and Pre-K supervisor at Bells City School, and he serves as pianist at First Baptist Church in Bells. Benjamin accompanies for Kincaid-Gooch Voice Studio and subs on keyboard for traveling musical theatre productions at the Orpheum Theatre in Memphis. He lives with his wife Christina and daughters Joely and Kay in Alamo.
