Dear TN High School Choral Directors,

On the following pages are listed the repertoire and conductors for the 2024 All-State Choirs. As you'll see below, there might be steps required before you can order some of the music.

1. Use the sheet music distributor of your choice (JW Pepper, Stanton's, SheetMusicPlus, Lois Fyfe, etc) to order, but please make sure you are ordering the correct edition according to the voicing and publisher information provided.
2. Please take a close look at the Treble Choir repertoire - there are three pieces only available through one publisher each. Because your school system might require time to setup new vendors, etc, please begin work on that now so you are setup to purchase these pieces once you are ready to order All-State pieces.
3. Please note that one Treble Choir piece has a limited time window when single copies are available - the publisher created a special link just for TN directors ordering for All-State - if you miss this window, you'll be required to follow their 15-copy minimum.

Why are so many of our pieces only available through separate publishers? Firstly, the repertoire for our All-State ensembles is selected by our renowned clinicians; while members of TMEA vet the proposed repertoire lists on several different criteria (divisi, language, rigor, etc), we try to trust the conductor's creative vision for their program. Secondly, self-publishing by individual composers or small publishing houses is becoming more and more common, and we don't want to ask these esteemed leaders in our profession to change their program based on who publishes their pieces.

Rather, TMEA has worked to make sure each piece is available as a single copy as needed, and member directors will need to work with your school/district bookkeepers to make sure these separate publishers are setup and ready to be paid by the time you order All-State music.

Should you have any questions, please feel free to email me at brussell@tnmea.org.

Sincerely,

Brian T. Russell, DMA
