Greetings,

On behalf of the West Tennessee Vocal Music Association, it is my distinct honor to welcome you to our 2023 All West Tennessee Junior and Senior High Honor Choir Concerts. Both our students and directors in collaboration with our chairs, accompanists, and guest clinicians have worked tirelessly to present the finest concerts possible. We thank you for encouraging and fostering your students' musical abilities. This afternoon you will witness the fruits of your investment.

The pandemic affected these young musicians in all aspects of their lives. Despite the minor setbacks of the pandemic, these musicians have overcome them and have allowed the pathway of music to guide their footsteps. Choral music education provides an outlet for students to escape into a discussion and express themselves through the beauty of artistry. It is through the different genres, cultures, and time periods of music that students are exposed to the world and are able to express themselves. Music making allows us to see the beauty and opportunities the universe has to offer; magnifying the positive, the noble, and the honorable qualities that our society has to offer.

Music is an academic subject that is a vital and valuable part of our students' holistic educational experience. It is not 'extra'-curricular, but co-curricular, in that it supports and reinforces the academic disciplines. WTVMEA's mission is to strive to provide scholarly, rigorous music-making experiences for our students and this honor choir concert is one such event.

Again, we thank you for your presence here today, as well as your support in our choral music programs. Your partnership at your student's school strengthens the whole village to guide the next generation of leaders, movers, and shakers. Please enjoy this afternoon's concert and we know that you will be positively impacted by the performances. Congratulations to you and your student's participation in the honor choir.

Adrian L. Maclin
President-WTVMEA
Choral Director-Cordova High School

Jabarie Glass is the Associate Director of Choral Studies at the University of South Carolina, where he conducts University Chorus and Gamecock Chorale and teaches undergraduate and graduate courses in conducting and choral pedagogy. Glass's varied conducting experiences have included working with university, secondary, community youth, festival, and church ensembles. Choral organizations under his leadership have been selected to perform at the American Choral Directors Association (ACDA) Southern Region Conference, the Mississippi-ACDA Conference, and the South Carolina Music Educators Association Conference.

Glass's scholarship focuses on conducting pedagogy, choral pedagogy, culturally responsive pedagogy, and music literacy. He has given guest lectures and presentations on these topics with university choral programs, at professional development workshops, and at national, regional, and state conferences of the American Choral Directors Association. His article on the intersection of literature selection and choral pedagogy was published in the February 2021 issue of The Choral Journal.

Glass previously served as Director of Choirs at Southaven High School and Middle School, conductor of the Michigan Youth Chamber Singers, as well as the founding conductor of CoroFuentes, the tenor-bass chorus of CoroRio, a youth and adult community choral organization for which he currently serves on the board of directors. As a dedicated advocate for student access to quality music education, Glass is passionate about sharing the knowledge gained from his experience working with young musicians with current and future choral practitioners. Furthermore, he continues to invest in the musical growth of young choral artists through clinics with secondary choral programs and conducting honor choruses.

A native Mississippian, Glass earned dual bachelor's degrees in business management and music education from the University of Mississippi, where he was inducted into the University's Student Hall of Fame, a university-wide honor bestowed upon only ten seniors annually based on leadership, scholarship, and service. Glass went on to earn a master's degree in music education from the Florida State University College of Music. He earned a doctoral degree in conducting from the University of Michigan School of Music, Theatre & Dance. He pursued additional conducting studies as a conducting fellow with the Chorus America Conducting Academy and the Yale-Norfolk Chamber Music Festival Choral Conducting Workshop.

Dr. Fox has conducted all state and regional choirs across the United States, led international, national and regional choral concerts/residencies and presented professional development workshops across the United States and internationally. His professional workshops focus on assessment in the choral classroom, building classroom community, rehearsal strategies, choral conducting techniques and shape note singing in the African American community. Dr. Fox has held teaching residencies at the Latvian Academy of Music and Syracuse University and led performance tours through Lithuania and Estonia. Dr. Fox conducted the 2019 National ACDA Middle School/Junior High Mixed Honor Choir and traveled to South Africa as a 2019 ACDA International Conductor Exchange Fellow where he led choral workshops and rehearsals in Johannesburg, Pretoria and Potchefstroom.

Dr. Derrick Fox is the Associate Dean of Graduate Studies and Creative Endeavors and a Professor of Choral Conducting at Michigan State University. Prior to MSU, he was the Director of Choral Activities and Distinguished Professor of Music at the University of Nebraska-Omaha and Assistant Professor of Choral Music at Ithaca College. Dr. Fox has taught at the middle school, high school and collegiate levels. His conducting experiences have included singers from upper elementary choirs through collegiate and community choirs. He was awarded the 2021 Bryan R. Johnson Service Award by the Nebraska Music Educators Association and the 2022 University of Nebraska Omaha Award for Distinguished Research/Creative Activity.
